

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

SHENNELLY TAMEKA FINN, and LASHAWNA CHRISTINA MORGAN,

Defendants.

Case No. 11-20353

Honorable John Corbett O'Meara

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO SET ORDER OF TRIALS

This matter came before the court on the government's May 25, 2012 Motion to Set Order of Trials. Defendant Lashawna Morgan filed a response May 30, 2012; and defendant Shennelly Finn filed a concurrence with Morgan's response June 5, 2012. No oral argument was heard.

Following the court's May 7, 2012 order granting motions to sever the two defendants for trial, the government filed this motion to proceed with defendant Morgan first. The government states that it believes it has a strong case against defendant Morgan and that if she is convicted, her testimony against defendant Finn could be compelled. This, the government argues, would obviate the need of a Kastigar hearing. There appears to be no prejudice to either defendant if Morgan is tried first; and, in addition, that order may be in the best interest of judicial economy. Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that the government's motion is GRANTED.
